Inductive Study Method

To study the Word of God inductively, you begin with the Bible itself as your main source of truth. Rather than seeking biblical insights from another person or book, you get into the Word of God yourself and begin by OBSERVING the text. To observe the text, you slow down to carefully study what it SAYS.

Instead of studying resources about the Bible, inductive study focuses first upon the Bible. You need to be willing to lay aside your preconceived notions, pet interpretations, ready references, study notes, sermon tapes, etc, coming to the Scriptures as for the first time. Your primary resource is God's Word, then other secondary resources.
