(CNN) — The level of diversity on America's biggest corporate boards has never been higher. But it's still far from on par with what U.S. society looks like. White women and minorities made up 38.3% of Fortune 500 board seats in 2020, up from 34% in 2018, according to a new study released Tuesday by the Alliance for Board Diversity in ...

The 6th edition uses competencies (some similar) that are broader and would be better targeted at the executive level. The type size of the font larger in the 6th yet, the quality of the printing makes it harder to read than the more crisp type on the previous edition. I'm torn. I actually like the descriptors better in the older 5th edition.
