In 1952, Stan Kenton introduced every member of his band at the time (including the 24-year-old Maynard Ferguson) in a ten-minute opus entitled Prologue: This Is an Orchestra!, composed by Johnny Richards and released in the then-new Extended Play 45 RPM format (the track was later incorporated into the 12-inch LP and CD versions of Kenton s New Concepts album, which was recorded at the same sessions in Chicago s Universal Studios).

Kenton, Stan - This Is An Orchestra - Amazon.com Music

Toward the close, as the orchestra rises in a crescendo of madness, Kenton, quite beside himself, raises his voice over the increasing din, finally shouting at the top of his lungs, "THIS IS AN ORCHESTRA!" Interestingly, this self-portrait doesn't reflect the Kenton who his musicians almost unanimously say was one of the nicest, most unselfish men they had ever worked for; there was a genuine esprit de corps in that band.
